RESPONSES TO QUESTION 4 OF ANNUAL BENEFIT REPORT

1. I certify that the Board of Directors has chosen the third-party standard designated pursuant to Minnesota Statutes §304A.301, Subd. 3(2)(i); determined that the organization that promulgated the third-party standard is independent; and approved the report.

2. With regard to period covered by the report:

   (i) The identity of the third-party standard determined by the Board is as follows:

   - B Impact Assessment, which is provided by B Lab, 15 Waterloo Ave., Berwyn, PA 19312

   (ii) With reference to that third-party standard:

   (A) The corporation has pursued general public benefit in the following ways:

   - providing programming and consulting services to individuals involved in the criminal justice system, post incarceration, in an effort to reduce recidivism among the criminal offender populations;
   - contracting with the Minnesota Department of Corrections to provide cognitive behavioral programming to individuals releasing from Minnesota prisons who have a high or very high risk level for re-offending, in an effort to reduce recidivism among the criminal offender populations; and
   - offering one-on-one personal cognitive behavior programming designed to alter the way criminal offenders think and behave, in an effort to reduce recidivism; and

   (B) The extent to which and the ways in which the corporation has created general public benefit include:

   - education about cognitive behavioral programming has been provided to men incarcerated in Stillwater, Faribault, and Rush City prisons who are awaiting release from incarceration;
   - education about cognitive behavioral programing has been provided to colleagues in the criminal justice community at annual conferences; and
   - evidentiary measurements confirm the success of our programming content in reducing recidivism.

   (C) Circumstances that hindered efforts to pursue or create a general public benefit, if any, include:

   - The corporation experienced challenges in marketing programs and services to potential referral sources and finding nonprofit entities with whom to partner.

3. Not applicable

4. With regard to the third-party standard identified under clause (2), item (i) above:

   - The third party standard is the same third party standard identified in immediately prior reports; and
   - The third party standard has been applied in a manner consistent with the third-party standard's application in the prior reports.
