Hoyo, SBC Annual Benefit Report for 2025

March 31, 2026

For the year 2025, Hoyo, SBC continued its stated mission of the empowerment of mothers and women in the Somali community. This is being accomplished by hiring Somali mothers for a position that utilizes their existing skills in making Sambusa and traditional Somali sauces. Through employment these mothers are paid a livable wage for their contribution. We are also providing transportation to and from work for some employees and taking other steps to reduce existing barriers to gainful employment.

Beyond this, Hoyo, SBC now also employs women from other ethnic backgrounds and Somali men for the "heavy lifting". Many of these individuals are recent arrivals to the U.S. and all of them come from a demographic that are generally considered an under- employed community. We believe this is also part of our public benefit.

Hoyo, SBC is teaching skills needed in the American workforce, with the goal that with these skills and a history of employment, these individuals will be equipped to move forward in gainful employment in other industries. Ideally, we would empower these women and men to be able to continue with Hoyo as we grow or be ready for employment in other food production companies.

Respectfully submitted
