RESPONSES TO QUESTION 3 OF ANNUAL BENEFIT REPORT

1. I certify that the Board of Directors has chosen the third-party standard designated pursuant to Minnesota Statutes §304A.301, Subd. 3(2)(i); determined that the organization that promulgated the third-party standard is independent; and approved the report.
2. With regard to period covered by the report:
 - (i) The identity of the third-party standard determined by the Board is as follows:
 - B Impact Assessment, which is provided by B Lab, 15 Waterloo Ave., Berwyn, PA 19312
 - (ii) With reference to that third-party standard:
 - (A) The corporation has pursued general public benefit in the following ways:
 - providing programming and consulting services to individuals involved in the criminal justice system, at the pre- and post-sentencing stages, in an effort to reduce recidivism among the criminal offender populations;
 - contracting with the Minnesota Department of Corrections to provide cognitive behavioral programming to individuals releasing from Minnesota prisons who have a high or very high risk level for re-offending, in an effort to reduce recidivism among the criminal offender populations; and
 - offering one-on-one personal coaching as well as group cognitive behavior therapy designed to alter the way criminal offenders think and behave.
 - contracting with Wellspring Second Chance Center to provide cognitive behavioral programming around Trauma to women leaving chemical dependency treatment or fleeing domestic violence.
 - (B) The extent to which and the ways in which the corporation has created general public benefit include:
 - education on these topics has been provided to the community, to potential clients and to their attorneys; and
 - education about cognitive behavioral programming has been provided to colleagues in the criminal justice community at annual conferences; and
 - evidentiary measurements confirm the success of our programming content in reducing recidivism.
 - (C) Circumstances that hindered efforts to pursue or create a general public benefit, if any, include:
 - The corporation experienced challenges in marketing programs and services to potential referral sources and finding nonprofit entities with whom to partner; and

3. Not applicable

4. With regard to the third-party standard identified under clause (2), item (i) above:

- The third party standard is the same third party standard identified in immediately prior reports; and
- The third party standard has been applied in a manner consistent with the third-party standard's application in the prior reports.
