HumanitarianHR

HumanitarianHR, SBC Annual Report 2024

Background on HumanitarianHR

HumanitarianHR was established as a Specific Benefit Corporation (SBC) on May 24, 2018 to prevent and protect vulnerable people from sexual exploitation, abuse, and trafficking.

In tandem with the global movement to end impunity for sexual harassment and exploitation, HumanitarianHR was launched to eradicate sexual exploitation, abuse, and trafficking of refugees and displaced people by those working in the development and humanitarian sector, and sexual harassment and abusive behavior of staff by others in their organizations. HumanitarianHR focuses on helping organizations bolster their safeguarding work to protect their staff and the people they serve. Our team of professional global associates has extensive experience helping organizations develop the highest safeguarding standards to protect their staff and at-risk populations from sexual exploitation, abuse, and harassment (SEAH) and other workplace misconduct (bullying, discrimination, abuse of power). Many on our team are nationals in the regions where they work: Africa, Asia, Europe, the Middle East, and Latin America. HumanitarianHR is an agile organization, ready to adapt plans and respond to clients' needs in the evolving challenges they face—the key to success in our work.

HumanitarianHR services include:

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Safeguarding policy and practice development• Safeguarding training• Independent survivor-centered investigations• Workplace assessments• Safeguarding and protection risk assessments• Training, capacity building, and mentoring for investigators	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Development of SEAH investigation procedures• Development of prevention, response, and accountability mechanisms• Community-based complaint mechanisms• Safeguarding programs audits• SEAH accountability and compliance guidance for contractors and vendors• Prevention mainstreaming
